
HI320	DIRECTED READINGS IN PRE-MODERN CHURCH HISTORY This course is designed to allow a student to pursue a particular topic from Church history before the Council of Trent. Topics may be the cultural, intellectual, socio-economic, and political history of Christian institutions or individuals in the early, patristic, medieval or early modern periods. Through selected readings and discussion the student should become aware of the particular issues of the topic in relation to the larger frame work of the history of the Church.	Hilliard	W
HI337	NARRATORS OF CHRISTIAN HISTORY	Hilliard	W
HI377	EARLY AMERICAN CHURCH HISTORY (1565-1865) The purpose of this course is to provide an introduction to, and general survey of, the Catholic Church in the United States from the European explorations to the eve of the Civil War. Special emphasis will be placed on significant moments of U.S. Catholic History chosen to illustrate/highlight persons, events, and issues that have helped our historical experience.	Zielinski	F
HI395	EUROPEAN INFLUENCE ON AMERICAN CATHOLICISM The Roman Catholic Church in the United States developed between 1840 and 1920 into an institution that was at once both uniquely American and very much European. When successive waves of Catholic immigrants-Irish, Polish, Italian and Hispanic, arrived in America between 1840 and 1950, the Church's effort to organize these new Americans into a unified urban Church transformed both the immigrants and the Church.
