
HISPANIC MINISTRY

Affiliate Faculty:

Rev. Ronald Hicks (Pastoral Theology)

Adjunct Faculty:

Ms. Kimberly Raciak

HM211	SPANISH I This first of 3 one-hour courses is intended for the student with little or no Spanish language experience. Four skills -- speaking, listening, reading, and writing-- are taught. Emphasis is given to the development of audio-lingual and grammar skills. (No Credit)	Raciak	F
HM212	SPANISH I The 2nd of 3 courses.	Raciak	W
HM213	SPANISH I The 3rd of 3 courses.	Raciak	S
HM215	LITURGICAL MINISTRY IN THE HISPANIC COMMUNITY (LEVEL I) This course recognizes the positive values of Hispanic cultures within the Church and the importance of being sensitive to these cultures when celebrating the sacraments and in proclaiming the Word. The course will reinforce and/or improve upon the student's basic language skills and cultural awareness. Spanish language skills not required. (Required for Chicago students and certain other dioceses.) (1 credit)
HM216	PREACHING IN SPANISH (LEVEL I) This course aims to develop a student's ability to preach in Spanish and to become familiar with cultural and religious factors affecting the celebration of the sacraments and rituals within the Hispanic community. (1 credit)
HM217	PREACHING IN SPANISH (LEVEL II) This course aims to improve the homiletic skills of those who will serve in the Hispanic community. The course is designed to help students gain greater confidence to preach in Spanish and understand the dynamics of preaching in the Hispanic community (1 credit)
HM218	PRESIDING IN SPANISH (LEVEL II) This practicum will help students not only celebrate rites they already know in the Spanish language (e.g. Baptism), but will also assist them to preside at ceremonies unique to the Spanish speaking world (e.g. la Quinceanera). There are no prerequisites except that student should be able to understand spoken Spanish and should be able to read Spanish rituals. It will prove helpful for both Latino and non-Latinos. Rites will be reviewed, practiced, and critiqued in a supportive manner aimed at helping students gain confidence through competence. 1 credit)

LG005	SPANISH II This one-hour course provides continuity in Spanish for experienced students with some prior knowledge of Spanish (including summer intensive experience). (No Credit)	Raciak	F
LG006	SPANISH II The 2nd of 3 courses.	Raciak	W
LG007A	SPANISH II The 3rd of 3 courses.	Raciak	S