
LANGUAGE/ESL PROGRAM

Faculty:

Mr. Thomas Dougherty, Director of ESL Program
 Dr. Elizabeth Nagel
 Ms. Lorraine Olley
 Rev. Robert Schoenstene

Adjunct Faculty:

Mrs. Robin Hilliard
 Ms. Kimberly Raciak

Staff:

Mrs. Sara Knizhnik

LG000A	THEOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND COMPOSITION (No Credit)	Olley	F
HM211	SPANISH I This first of 3 one-hour courses is intended for the student with little or no Spanish language experience. Four skills -- speaking, listening, reading, and writing-- are taught. Emphasis is given to the development of audio-lingual and grammar skills. (No Credit)	Raciak	F
HM212	SPANISH I The 2nd of 3 courses.	Raciak	W
HM213	SPANISH I The 3rd of 3 courses.	Raciak	S
LG002	LATIN I Basic grammar and vocabulary.	Schoenstene	F
LG003	LATIN II Builds on Latin I. Works with scripture and Church Fathers.	Schoenstene	W
LG005	SPANISH II This one-hour course provides continuity in Spanish for experienced students with some prior knowledge of Spanish (including summer intensive experience). (No Credit)	Raciak	F
LG006	SPANISH II The 2nd of 3 courses.	Raciak	W
LG007A	SPANISH II The 3rd of 3 courses.	Raciak	S

LG	LATIN IV, V, VI Continuation of Latin.	Hilliard	F/W/S
LG008	LATIN III Continuation of Latin II (Year I)	Hilliard	S
LG010	INTENSIVE ENGLISH FOR THEOLOGY AND ACCULTURATION -- I This course provides intensive practice in listening, speaking, reading, writing and communicating in English in preparation for graduate level academic studies. Students will improve their language skills while learning to understand and adjust to mainstream American cultural viewpoints.	Dougherty	F
LG011	INTENSIVE ENGLISH FOR THEOLOGY AND ACCULTURATION -- II Continues LG010	Dougherty	W
LG016	SUPPLEMENTAL ENGLISH FOR THEOLOGY -- II This course will build on your knowledge of theological/biblical terminology and structures used in theological discourse. Students will give presentations on a parable or pericope from scripture and familiarize themselves with the features of academic reading/writing. Students will enhance their note-taking and summarizing skills during guest lectures.	Dougherty	W
LG020	INTENSIVE ESL TOEFL Preparation.	Dougherty	F
LG022	INTERMEDIATE ESL I Reading and Writing	Dougherty	F
LG023	ADVANCED ESL I Reading and Writing	Dougherty	F
LG024	INTERMEDIATE ESL II Conversation	Dougherty	F-W-S
LG025	ADVANCED ESL I Grammar Application	Dougherty	F
LG027	ADVANCED ESL Current Events and Writing	Dougherty	S
LG030	TUTORING	Dougherty	F-W-S
LG031	INTERMEDIATE ESL I Grammar Application	Knizhnik	F
LG032	ADVANCED ESL I Grammar Application	Knizhnik	F
LG035	ADVANCED ESL I Writing/Reflections		F

LG036	INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED ESL I Pronunciation	Knizhnik	F
LG038	INTENSIVE ESL I Writing/Reflections		F
BI303	GREEK I This consists of a careful study of the grammar and syntax of the Greek language with emphasis on New Testament usage. This course is a prerequisite for BI304.	Nagel	F
BI304	GREEK II Building on Greek I, this course moves toward readings and exegesis of selected passages from the Gospel of John.	Nagel	W
HM214	SUMMER LANGUAGE INTENSIVE		Summer