

---

WO216	PRESIDING AT THE RITES Through the Church's liturgical and sacramental life the paschal mystery is made present in the lives of the faithful. This course provides background and skills necessary in the preparation of liturgical celebrations, discusses current liturgical issues, and encourages the development of the liturgical spirituality. (Fourth Year)	Martis	F
WO217	PRESIDING AT THE EUCHARIST This course serves as a practical preparation of deacons for the celebration of the Mass following their priestly ordination. Using the Sacramentary and Lectionary, and their accompanying official documentation, students are prepared to celebrate the Eucharist with pastoral competence, to lead the assembly in the worship of God, and to preside over and regulate diaconal and lay liturgical ministries in the Mass. (2 hours)	Martis	S
WO319	LITURGICAL MINISTRY IN THE HISPANIC COMMUNITY This course recognizes the positive values of Hispanic cultures within the Church and the importance of being sensitive to these cultures when celebrating the sacraments and in proclaiming the Word. The course will reinforce and/or improve upon the student's basic language skills and cultural awareness. Spanish language skills not required. (1 credit)	Hicks	S
WO320	LITURGICAL MINISTRY IN THE POLISH COMMUNITY	Ciomek/Wojcik	S
WO342	SACRAMENTAL, BLESSINGS AND DEVOTIONS (see LI542 for course description)	Kunkel	S
WO372	PREPARATION AND PERFORMANCE OF SACRED MUSIC In this course, the fundamentals of vocal training as applied to liturgical singing is taught. The course concentrates on the beginner voice. It focuses on vocal production and technique, pitch-matching skills, sight-singing skills and unison singing in a pleasant voice. The basics of music theory and the fundamentals of Gregorian chant will be introduced. Through discussion, shared reading, practical application, and participating in a vocal ensemble, all will contribute to the appreciation of sacred music in Catholic liturgy by the class participants. (One credit hour each quarter for three quarters only)	Cerabona	F-W-S
WO375	MUNDELEIN SCHOLA This course is for an ensemble of singers with choral competence and experience. It is designed to explore more advanced styles of singing various selections of choral music from the seminary sacred music library for worship through consistent rehearsing and participation in the liturgical/special events of the seminary.	Cerabona	F-W-S

---

WO376	SPANISH CHOIR	Cerabona	F-W-S
WO379	VOCAL PRACTICUM I Develops vocal potential as cantor, proclaimer of the Word and presiding officer of the liturgy. Includes vocal training and experience. [Fall: No Pre-Theology or First Year, Fall Quarter Only] (Minimum 3/Maximum 6)	Wojcik	F-W-S
WO380	VOCAL PRACTICUM II A further development of Practicum I. Primary focus is ministerial chanting of liturgical texts and functioning as cantor at worship. As a by-product, it develops skills of interpretive speaking and reading. [Third and Fourth year students only] [Prerequisite: WO379 or private audition] (Minimum 3/ Maximum 25)	Wojcik	W-S
WO381	AMERICAN ACCENT PRACTICUM I - INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS This course is offered to international students who will minister in the U.S. While developing practical skills in public speaking and proclamation, students will acquire the sounds, intonation and rhythm of the Midwestern U.S. accent.	Neal	F
WO382	AMERICAN ACCENT PRACTICUM II - INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS Continuation of American Accent Practicum I	Neal	W
WO383	AMERICAN ACCENT PRACTICUM III - INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS Continuation of American Accent Practicum II	Neal	S
WO387	EXTRAORDINARY RITE PREPARATION	Garcia	S
WO454	NCTI SPRING SEMINAR: PRAYER AND LIFE IN THE SPIRIT (See CL454 for course description)	Baima and NCTI Staff	S
WO300	INDEPENDENT STUDY (300-level)
WO399	OUTSIDE COURSE (300-level)
WO400	INDEPENDENT STUDY (400-level)
WO499	OUTSIDE COURSE (400-level)

---

DEPARTMENT OF PASTORAL THEOLOGY

Department Chairperson:

Rev. Raymond Webb

Professor:

Rev. Raymond Webb

Assistant Professor

Rev. Martin Barnum

Rev. Ronald Hicks

Dr. Kathleen Wiskus

Affiliate Faculty:

Mr. Thomas Dougherty (ESL/Languages)

Rev. Scott Hebden (Systematic Theology)

Dr. Christopher McAtee

Adjunct Faculty:

Rev. Edward Cronin

Rev. Laurence Dunn

Sr. Madge Karecki, SSJ

Rev. Patrick O'Malley

CC = Cross-Cultural Elective

SPI = Selected Pastoral Issues

PL211

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION I

In this first course of Theological Reflection we introduce the process of describing, analyzing, and reflecting on experience from the perspective of Roman Catholic Theology. (All First Year; one credit)

Hebden W

PL212

INTRODUCTION TO PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

This course is designed to be a preparation for the pastoral internship. Pastoral care will be explored from the perspectives of developmental and life-cycle theory with its implications for ministry and with family systems theory. In addition, the course will focus on the development and practice of the basic pastoral care skills of attending, listening, and empathy.

Webb F-W

PL213

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION II

Students deepen their ability to analyze experience and reflect theologically on it. They begin to reflect on the theological perspectives which guide their pastoral action. Foundational perspectives are elaborated. (All 2nd Year; one credit)

Webb W