*Honoring
Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rigali, Sr.*

September 16, 2010

Robert and Therese Rigali, Sr.

Bob and Therese (Mullins) Rigali have been chosen as the 2010 recipients of the Joseph Cardinal Bernardin “In Service of One Another” Catholic Humanitarian Award in honor of their dedication to the Church and to Mundelein Seminary.

Bob and Therese both worked for their family company as a salesman and secretary respectively from the early 1950s until their recent retirement.

Bob, named the president of Daprato Rigali Studios in 1969, was the fourth generation of leadership for a company which has provided 150 years of service to the Church through their work in statuary, stained glass window creation and restoration, marble work and other artistic disciplines which enhance the ethereal beauty of many worship spaces throughout Chicago and the country. The Daprato Rigali company counts as one of their many artistic successes the 1997 restoration of the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception at Mundelein Seminary.

Four of their five children now carry on their artistic vision and tradition as the fifth generation of family leadership for their company. Their focus has always been hand-crafted quality, carrying forward the artistic integrity of their founders in the service of the Church.

Bob and Therese married in 1956 at St. Catherine of Siena Parish and have spent a lifetime of dedicated service to the Church, helping to create beautiful Church environments in which thousands worship each week.

The University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary is proud to honor the life commitment of Bob and Therese Rigali to their Church with the 2010 Joseph Cardinal Bernardin “In Service of One Another” – Catholic Humanitarian Award.
