

Sacred Music Retreat

A guided retreat
for church musicians

Sunday June 25 to Friday June 30, 2006

The Liturgical Institute is pleased to present a retreat intended for church musicians and leaders, where the theological and practical aspects of church music are combined with prayer and meditation on the campus of the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary.

Each day includes sung morning, midday and evening prayer as well as spiritual conferences, master classes in organ, chant, and hymnody as desired, with ample time for prayer and meditation. A schola will be formed to sing for the Mass of the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul.

Conference topics include:

Heaven is Joined to Earth
Responding to God in the Liturgy
Let Us Sing to the Lord
An Instrument of God's Grace
The Culture of Music
No More Beige Music, Please!
The Songs We Sing, The Texts We Live

Retreat Speakers:

RETREAT MASTER FR. JORDAN KELLY, OP is an accomplished organist, choirmaster and retreat leader. He is a friar of the Dominican Province of St. Albert the Great and Chairman of the Theology Department of Fenwick High School in Oak Park, Illinois.

FR. SAMUEL WEBER, OSB is monk of Saint Meinrad Archabbey in Indiana and an organ and chant specialist. He is a founding member of the Wake Forest Divinity School, where he is associate professor of early Christianity.

FR. ROBERT SCHOENSTENE is a theologian and accomplished linguist and organist. He is currently Assistant Professor of Biblical Exegesis and Proclamation at Mundelein Seminary.

REV. RICHARD WOJCIK was trained as a chant specialist at the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music and has spent nearly fifty years teaching church music. He is currently Music Director Emeritus at Mundelein Seminary.

MR. MATTHEW WALSH, an accomplished organist and composer, is Director of Music at Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago, where he directs several choirs.
